

Why PE, school sport and physical activity matters

Teachers have told us that PE, school sport and physical activity can positively impact:

92%

academic achievement

98%

mental wellbeing

99%

physical wellbeing

97%

individual student development

93%

behaviour of students

Helping all of your students be active could benefit them, and your school, in more ways than you might think.

*Based on a study by Sheffield Hallam University of 81,773 students and 10,285 staff
